ABOUT US

The Foundation of Social Integration Prom was established in 2004.

We've been hosting ESC volunteers in our children's center, Brave Kids project, our office, Polish kindergartens and schools in Wroclaw since 2009. Apart from ESC projects, we're also involved in local projects that support the integration of people and groups of people at risk of marginalization and social exclusion such as children from disadvantaged backgrounds, Roma minority, and people with mental health issues.

We are looking for a volunteer from the EU to work in a democratic school in the city of Wroclaw.

Please read the criteria below and apply by sending us the documents mentioned at the end of this info pack before the 19th of January 2024.

ACTIVITY DATES: March 1st - July 31st 2024.

YOU ARE ELIGIBLE IF YOU:

- 1 are between 18 and 30 years old
- 2 have not done a long-term European Voluntary Service / European Solidarity Corps project before.
- 3 have a clean criminal record (a relevant document should be sent to us after the recruitment).

GALILEO WROCLAW: ALTERNATIVE DEMOCRATIC SCHOOL

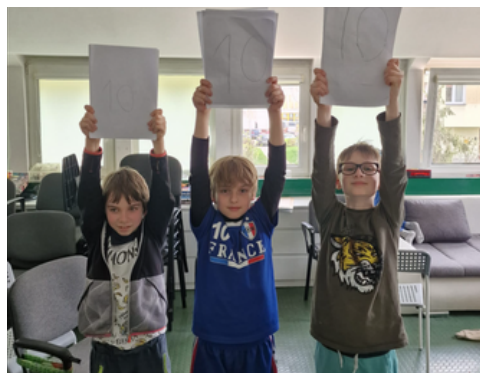

is looking to host 1 volunteer. Fluent English required.

School Website

Galileo School

- no traditional grades, traditional division into typical lessons and classes (children of different ages work together in classes);
- the school aims to support children's personal development and their interest & passion;
- Galileo School encourages children to learn through experiments and trial and error method;
- Galileo School hosts a lot of Ukrainian refugee children.

We're recruiting one participant to volunteer in a democratic school in Wrocław.

- Volunteering hours are 35 hours per week (6 hours per day in host org. + 5 extra hours per week for planning activities for local events) that promote the project and the European Solidarity Corps.

RESPONSIBILITIES:

- Getting to know the principles of ASP Galileo functioning, teachers' tasks, getting to know the specifics of work and pedagogical approach;
- Support children during activities outside the school premises, joint project activities, etc .
- Introducing your country (presentations, workshops, celebrating holidays and important celebrations together);
- Getting involved (in line with one's own abilities and interests) in the organization of educational projects and special events at school (eg. Dot Day, M. Skłodowska-Curie's birthday, Halloween, Christmas, Pi Day, Darwin's birthday, etc.);
- Organizing workshops consistent with the skills and interests of volunteers (eg origami, dancing, making music together, artistic activities);
- Teaching children simple phrases, songs and basic phrases in the volunteer's native language;
- Creating teaching aids for the classes (according to own ideas and according to teachers' suggestions);
- Establishing cooperation with teachers, establishing the principles of cooperation with them and jointly defining specific tasks that will be in line with the volunteers' predispositions and interests;
- Assisting teachers in taking care of children while maintaining safety rules;
- Supporting children in developing independence (especially younger children at school, who, for example, need help in finding their own things);
- Cooperating with the teaching staff in taking care of the school's aesthetics (creating occasional decorations, taking care of the decor of rooms and corridors, creating original posters);
- Participating in integration meetings with other volunteers (including the organization of such meetings at our school and with the support of the teaching staff).
